

Hey, Little Buddy! I'm so glad to be here!

Together, we'll spread Kindness and, of course, Christmas Cheer.

I arrive around Christmas to visit with you.

Remember my name? That's right.... Elfie Poo!

I live in a place that always is cold.

I live with Santa up at the North Pole.

There's so many elves with so many roles.

I'm here to teach you to be KIND and be BOLD!

Us Kindness Elves are a special breed.

We're trained to guide you through December good deeds.

Santa sends us to the most special folk.

He's challenging you to spread kindness and hope.

Each week, in between the games and the fun,

I'll bring you a challenge that needs to be done.

You'll have to be BOLD, but your heart will grow.

You'll change the world with the kindness you show!!
